

Justin Sullivan

Associate Institutional Planner, University of Wisconsin-Stout
Psychology Department
College of Education, Hospitality, Health and Human Sciences
Office: 128H Bowman Hall
Phone: 715-232-4093
Email: sullivanj@uwstout.edu

Roles/Responsibilities

- Works closely with clients to define and develop logic models, research goals, and evaluation plans
- Implements evaluations plans and ensures that project plans are completed on time
- Assign project tasks and supervise graduate assistants
- Interprets and presents data in customized, technical reports
- Utilizes SPSS for analysis of descriptive and inferential statistics
- Utilizes NVivo for content and thematic analysis of qualitative data
- Develops custom survey instruments based on project goals

Education

- MS Applied Psychology
University of Wisconsin-Stout
Menomonie, WI, United States, 2014
- BA Psychology
University of Wisconsin-Stout
Menomonie, WI, United States, 2008

Work Experience

Academic - Post-Secondary

- University of Wisconsin-Stout, Applied Research Center
Associate Institutional Planner
September 2014 -

Intellectual Contributions

Journal Article

- Houser, J. N., Giblin, S. M., James, W., Langrehr, H. A., Rogala, J. T., Sullivan, J., & Gray., B. R. (2013). Nutrient cycling, connectivity and free-floating plant abundance in backwater lakes of the Upper Mississippi River.. , 21, 71–89.

Presentations

Oral Presentation

- Sullivan, J., Gregg, A., Roth, L., & Lamping, J. (November 10, 2015). Providing Practical Experience for Graduate Students: The Role of Graduate Assistants at the UW-Stout Applied Research Center. American Evaluation Conference 2015, Chicago , IL, United States.

Professional Memberships

- American Evaluation Association (AEA)